Price List Changes Effective April 1, 2018

In response to changing global supply market conditions, Industrial Scientific will be increasing the prices of several product lines effective 1 April 2018. This is the first time since January 2014 that Industrial Scientific has raised prices for several popular product lines including the Tango® TX1 Single Gas and Ventis® MX4 Multi-Gas Monitors.

Orders received by 31 March 2018 will be honored at current prices. All orders received on 1 April 2018 or later will be honored at the new 2018 price.

For additional information regarding the 2018 price list changes, contact your local Industrial Scientific representative. Global contact information can be found at www.indsci.com/offices.

Thank you for your business and ongoing support.

Sincerely,

Thomas C. Henson
Vice President, Marketing
